

Murano Glass Charms sale

Escrito por happyreiley - 27/09/2016 08:40

My first styling involves all my new Pandora muranos for 2016, with the exception of the Wild Hearts murano (although that probably wouldn't have looked out of place, if I had added it!). Pandora's glass has come on in such leaps and bounds that I think a bracelet Pandora Birthstone Earrings sale cheap focusing on their murano beads works is rather a beautiful thing these days.

I've also included a couple of photos of how I actually wear my pink & purple shimmer muranos! This is my classic silver bracelet, which pairs the shimmer muranos with the classic Lavender Candy-Stripe murano – it's surprising how easily these newer glass beads blend with the older glass and classic-style silver charms.

I love these murano and are so pretty colours I love them all. I think the mint one would look lovely on the summer leather bracelet, you made me laugh about some charms on your charm bar I have quite a few too I love them all but they don't fit anywhere at the moment Pandora Heart Birthstone Charms sale sometimes I switch them around with my leather bracelets too.
